" During the November 21, 1977 meeting in Buenos Aires between His Excellency the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Argentina, other officials of the Argentine Government, and the Secretary of State of the United States, Mr. Vance mentioned that a coalition of church, civil and humanitarian organizations in the United States concerned with the subject of human rights had prepared a list of persons reported to be detained or missing in Argentina. Secretary Vance acknowledged that the United States Government has no means of verifying the information, but the Secretary wished to make the list available to the Government of Argentina for its use.

The United States Embassy to Argentina is pleased, therefore, to transmit the list mentioned in the November 21 meeting to the Government of Argentina.
